

Duraform[®]

doors & panels

Over 55 years
of service

An Australian owned family company, Janper was established in 1969 by Theo & Miriam Janssen in Croydon, and now has over fifty five years experience in the cabinet making industry.

Millions of dollars have been invested in research and development and state of the art manufacturing equipment.

From automatic routing systems, to our high pressure vacuum press, this reflects our determination and commitment to keep abreast with Australian and International standards in quality.
